It has given us a mass of legislative jargon, unjutelligable to judges, lawyers and litigants, and endless litigation as the result.

It has changed the road law so as to make it oppressive, in consequence of its unjust discriminations, and in the appliand road surveyors allies.

In the re-establishment of the antiquated county court, it has rendered our judiciary system costly, cumbersome and oppressive. It has extorted large sums of money from the people and spent the same in the construction of a penitentiary unnecessarily large, that it might fill it with importations of convicts found guilty by the federal courts in other States, whose compulsory and cheap labor is should be brought into competition with the honest toil of our mechanics and laborers, thus reducing the already diminished wages of this class of our citizens, and swelling the profits of contractors and jobbers.

It has so tampered with the school law it has so tampered with the school and ation of its provisions to befog lawyers tors and jobbers,—

It has so tampered with the school law as to make it contradictory, complicated and confused, and has converted the schools themselves into a mere shuttle-schools themselves into a mere shuttlecock for contending local factions, and has enabled shylocks to speculate on the wages of teachers by the unwarranted withholding of their payment.

It has given us a homestead exemption law, which, in its enforcement, permits the landlord to strip an unfortunate tensint tofithe last piece of household farniture, and even to rob him of the scanty clothing which covers his famishing children.

It has covered up the frauds and pecu-

children.

It has covered up the frauds and peculations of public officials; has defended their perpetrations; rewarded them with tokens of favor, and sheltered them from the legitimate consequences of their rimes. It has, by discriminating legislation and heavy taxes, driven many of our best citizens to seek new homes in the far West. It has destroyed local self-government,

It has destroyed local self-government, concentrated power in the hands of cliques at the court houses, and has so arranged for the collection and disbursement of county moneys as to greatly inconvenience the holders of claims, and to foster at the county seats a class of money changers, shavers and sharpers.

It has with wasteful extravagance appropriated money for bogus railroads, boom companies, and the like, with unusual privileges, for the exclusive benefit of bankerupt corporations.

We therefore demand such amendments to the Constitution as will relieve it from odinm, incongruities, and absurdities.

We demand the abolition of the county court; the restoration of townships and local self-government; the exclusion of everything of a sectarian or partisan character from our schools.

We demand the selection, to places of public positions, of men who are capable, honest, and sober, and the prompt and vigorous punishment of all public men guilty of trand, peculsulon, or official misconduct.

A CORRECTION. WASHINGTON, July 30 .- The Indian WABILINGTON, July 30.—The Indian office desires the statement to be made that the criticisms which the office has been subjected to in reference to the supply of arms and ammunition to Sitting Bull are unwarranted. In January last orders were issued prohibiting the sale of arms, &c., to the Indians, and since then no complaint has been received from the military or agents that the order has been violated. No doubt supplies have been furnished secretly to the Indians, but the government force is not sufficient to prevent altogether such traffic.

The Yacht Race.

The Yacht Race.

New York, July 29.—The yacht Idler in the race for Bennett Cup passed Quarentine Station bound in at 5:20 this morning, Wanderer next at 6:45. Countees of Dufferin at 9 A. M. was outside the bar. Nothing has been seen of the America or Tidal Wave.

The Evening Post publishes an account of the ocean yacht race for Bennett Cap taken from the fog of the victorious Idler. Almost from the start Idler was in the advance. An accident befer the Tidal Wave at the very beginning and she was compelled to take in her foresail for repairs. At 7:30 r. M. yesterday Idler was abreast of Fire Island and at that time Tidal Wave, and America were just visible on the horizon. Wanderer was full down seven miles to the east and the Countess of Dufferin was invisible. At 11 r. M. the wind grew me east and the Countess of Dufferin was invisible. At 11 r. m, the wind grew light and at 12 r. m. it died out altogether. When 'Idler was within half a mile of the light ship a breeze then sprung up from the westward heading the yacht off, but after several tacks ahe succeeded in rounding the light ship and winning the race at 12:30 A. M.

Accidental suicide.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE.

Washington, July 29. Mr. Hill called up the bill passed by both Houses extending the time for the redemption of lands sold for direct taxes, to have it amended so as to exclude the possibility of its being construed to affect national cemeteries. The bill was affect national cemeteries. The bill was so amended and passed.

The reports of the Committee on Naval Affairs were then discussed.

After a protracted debate, the matter by the operation of the previous question, went over till Monday next.

A recess was taken till 8 o'clock.

The evening seasion lasted till 10 o'clock and was for general debate. A large number of speeches were made, but the only one of public importance was by Mr. Morrison, chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, on his tariff bill, which he said would not be pressed at the present session.

From the Indian Border— Indian Wants Peace. OMAHA, July 29.—An official telegram

OMAHA, July 29.—An official telegram from Fort Laramie says a courier who has just arrived from the Red Cloud Agency says: Red Cloud told him that Crary Horse was coming into the agency very soon, and that his band was now on their way there. Twenty lodges have already arrived. Crary Horse has sent word to Captain Eagan, that he would see him, shake hands, make treaty and be friendly Indians. The Indians that have lately arrived wont talk about the fight and pretend to know nothing of it. A council was held at the Cheyenne camp while the courier was detained there to council was held at the Cheyenne camp while the courier was detained there to talk about the change from civil to military authorities. Many opposed it. Red Cloud has expressed his satisfaction at the change. Fear is apprehended that any attempt to deprive the Indians of ponies and arms will meet with resistance, as they muster a large force well armed, while the number of troops at the post are very small. It is thought that they will allow themselves to be numbered without opposition.

are very small. It is thought that they will allow themselves to be numbered without opposition.

CHEYENNE, Wy., July 29.—Previous reports via the Missouri, River agencies, are in part confirmed by the news received at Fort Laramie from Red Cloud to-day. Runners arrived at that agency said to have come from Cray Horse's band of Minneconjous, and stating that that chief, with a portion of his band hat left Sitting Bull's domains and are now en route to the agencies avowedly to treat for peace. Turning over of the agencies of Red Cloud and Spotted Tail have not been without difficulty. Wille a majority of the Indians are disposed to submit gracefully thereto, quite a number express dissatisfaction to have a soldier father placed over them, and the final council is being held at Red Cloud to-day. Some dissatisfaction is felt by the Indians at the meagre supplyof food, which consists of corn, flour and beef; they insist on sugar, coffee and tobacco, in fulfillment of the stipulations, and farther attributing the departure from the agencies of those who have joined the hostiles to this fact rather than the desire for war. The apprehension of inability to carry out the arders to dissarm all those Indians to this fact rather than the desire for war.

If the apprehension of inability to carry out the orders to disarm all those Indians before allowing them to return to the agency exists at Camp Sheridan and Robinson, and two companies of the 5th cavalry will go to Sheridan, increasing the force at that the companies of the standard property of the
